The lawyer marshals past logic to settle a case at hand; the doctor strives to ameliorate the ills of a lifetime; the architect builds for his century. But the work of a good teacher spreads from pupil to child of pupil and multiplies throughout eternity. Teaching must be considered a privilege, and only the eminently qualified should prepare themselves for this mother of all professions.

Leader: Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
Audience: Serve the Lord with gladness: come before His presence with singing.
Leader: Know ye that the Lord He is God: it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
Audience: Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and bless his name.
All: For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations.

Narrator I: We present these buildings to be dedicated to the Glory of God and to the education of man.
Narrator II: By what name shall these buildings be henceforth known?
Narrator I: The Caroline Holly Memorial Library and the annex to the W. N.
Zanders Vocational Building.
Narrator II: (to all present): Fellow Citizens, we rejoice that there is a God who directs the minds of men toward the development of projects such as this, to the honor of His name and the betterment of His creatures.
I now accept these buildings, to be known as the Caroline Holly Memorial Library and the annex to the W. N. Zanders Vocational Building, to dedicate them to set them apart for the education of young American boys and girls. Let us therefore, as we are assembled dedicate these places to their proper and sacred uses.

All Standing, the Narrator Shall Say, the People Responding:
Narrator I: To the Glory of God and the fellowship of man
Audience: We dedicate these buildings
Narrator II: To the perpetuation of American Democracy
Audience: We dedicate these buildings
Narrator I: To the development of the minds of youth.
Audience: We dedicate these buildings
Narrator II: In gratitude for the labors of those who love and serve this institution; in remembrance of those who have served; in anticipation of the worth to be derived from this institution.
Audience: We dedicate these buildings
Narrator and Audience: We, now, the people of this community and State surrounded by these witnesses, grateful for our heritage, sensitive to our responsibilities, happy in their challenge, do dedicate ourselves to the noble purposes of this school.
Narrators: (Prayer) Accept, O God, Our Father, this service at our hands and bless it to the end for which it is intended.
